PROJECTS

What do you want to eat? App | <https://github.com/mms211/What-Do-You-Want-To-Eat-App> | <https://mms211.github.io/What-Do-You-Want-To-Eat-App/>

- The app that takes choice out of where you are going to eat. Simply choose a type of cuisine, hit search and let the app choose a random restaurant near your current location.
- Took a leadership role in designing and formulating the idea for the app. Managed the geolocator feature as well as the API calls. Created the functions which sorted through the JSON response to display it on the page.
- HTML5, Javascript, jQuery, Zomato API, CSS, Foundation

FrightFinder| Still in production, expected deployment date March 18th

- Halloween only comes once a year but the spookiness lasts year round. Using FrightFinder you can find the closest haunted place near you! You can also search a location or if you're just in the mood for a scary story use our random button.
- Wrote all of the SQL queries, discovered the database, and wrote the functions to interact with the displayed page.
- HTML5, Javascript, jQuery, Semantic UI, MySQL, Sequelize, GoogleMaps API
